Welcome To Dothan

Deep in Alabama sits Dothan, the city center for the Wiregrass Area, which encompasses southeast Alabama, panhandle Florida, and southwest Georgia. Named after a grass that once grew wild among the pines, the Wiregrass is now home to a modern city decorated by museums, arts, festivals, sports, and an emerging culinary scene, thanks to a little show called Top Chef.

We hope that while you are here, you'll discover what makes Dothan special - our people. We asked a few of them to help us explain what is so great about our city. Meet Dothan's Taste Makers, Story Shapers, Cool Creators, and Team Players over the next few pages, and see if you can spot them while you visit Dothan!

TASTE MAKERS

Taste Makers define the flavor of the Wiregrass and set the tone for culinary excellence. They know how to give your taste buds the gift of down home cooking or a savory cup of fresh, local coffee. They start their days before the sun comes up and they don't rest their eyes until the last customer has been served. Their friendly smiles with a simple "How are you?," will make you feel like family.

I think we were very fortunate in this area to have a sense of community and people willing to help each other out. We have been fantastically blessed with people coming by and visiting and sharing what we do. Building a business in this area is a community event. It has really been a blessing to have all the people that have worked with us.

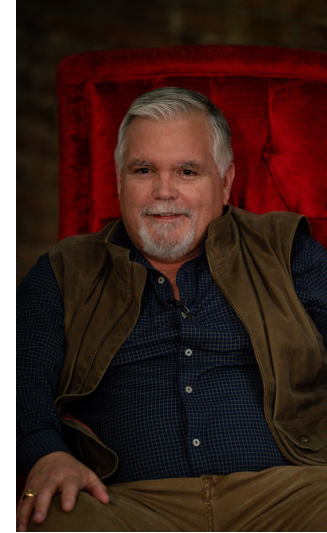

Lloyd Keel | Gibson Distilling Company

Zach Swan & Destiny Hosmer

Mural City Coffee Company

One of my favorite things about us is that when you come in, you're going to learn something new. We want our atmosphere to feel very open and welcoming, and you can ask us questions. You don't know how your coffee gets from plants to your cup? You can ask us. Our roaster is right out in the open. We source the green beans and roast them right there, so it goes from green beans to your cup in one spot. We take great pleasure in giving that experience to people.

Tim Reeves

Hunts Restaurant

When you come here, the food is going to be fresh and we're going to dress it right then. I go get the fish myself every week. I don't let it go to three places before it gets to me.

Brittney Rivers

Cookies Cafe

Our slogan at the cafe is, "Where you're treated like family!" We have fresh veggies and everything is cooked that day. We know all of our customers, and even if you're not one of our regulars, you're gonna leave there feeling like you were family.

Kay & Lloyd Keel

Gibson Distilling Company

One of the nice things about stopping by the distillery is that you can actually taste our products that we make and we'll explain a little bit about how it's made. Then, if people are interested, we'll go back in and look at the still, the fermenters, and the grains and explain the science behind it and let people really understand how their alcohol is made. We like to tell our story.

STORY SHAPERS

Story Shapers hold the heritage of the Wiregrass near and dear to their heart. They can tell you the history of every mural in town, what each historic building once was and the importance of preserving what our ancestors set out to accomplish. Story Shapers immerse themselves in education and are always looking for ways to share their story with the masses.

It's a community that's worth staying for. It's a community that you need to spend some time in. And I know everybody doesn't want to hear it, but you need to learn a little history. Okay. And it was not my favorite subject school either, but I'm going to tell you as you get older, there's a lot to be learned from the history books. So spend some time learning it, go see it. Because there's some history here.

I am at the historic Cherry Street AME Church and we are planning to put in a monument to Dr. George Washington Carver. Dr. Carver came to Dothan in 1936 to speak at the first peanut festival. And of course he was the peanut man and a very humble person and a very, very brilliant person. I remember one time they said that Dr. Carver was asked why he didn't get married. He said, who would want to marry a man who would go out in the woods early in the morning before the day and talk to the trees and the plants and the animals. So he said that he was devoting his life to helping farmers and all of the people in the great state of Alabama. So he is one of Alabama's greatest assets. It's Dr. George Washington Carver out of Tuskegee.

Ann Cotton

Cultural Arts Center

There are a lot of people that work in the arts, here... and when I say the arts, everybody automatically thinks that we're talking about painting and that that's not it. There's a huge number of people still in this town that do textiles. And I mean from tatting and crocheting to weaving to looming... And when you take that and you couple it with the visual, musical, and performance artists that we have here that are homegrown... They are walking, talking, living and breathing in South Alabama. I know that there's this part of our lives that can be enriched when families come and can have those arts and places to go and see. Landmark Park is a treasure trove. Wiregrass Museum of Art, showing work by local artists, is a treasure trove.

Fifty percent of our traffic is travelers. I'm sure when you come north you see the largest billboard in the South is on the roof of that barn, that barn we designed and built to attract. We have been able to book several tours to come here. We promote Fort Rucker and their museum, Swamp Gravy in Colquitt, Georgia and several things here in Dothan.. Each one of those tours that came they said that highlight was to be able to visit here and in this area. Dothan is a great place. It's a great place to live. Great place to visit.

E.R. Porter Hardware Museum

Before closing its doors in 2014, E.R. Porter Hardware was the longest running hardware store in the state of Alabama. The store has been preserved just as it was when they closed business on that day, and stands as a living museum for “the way things used to be.” The story goes that Dothan was built with materials purchased at Porter Hardware. This attraction is unique to Dothan and is full of stories about our little corner of the world.

Located in the original Greyhound bus station in Downtown Dothan, the George Washington Carver Museum is dedicated to honoring the contributions of African-Americans to arts and sciences. The Carver is home to one-of-a-kind personal items from Dr. Carver and his laboratory. There he developed over 300 uses for peanuts in food, industrial, and commercial products, as well as promoting soil rotation, which saved the Wiregrass area from economic ruin in the age of the boll weevil. The Carver hosts annual Black History Month events, as well as educational activities year round.

Murals of the Wiregrass

Downtown Dothan
muralcityartwalk.com

What better way to celebrate our area’s rich history in agriculture, music, movies, and peanuts than by painting it on the sides of our most historic buildings in Downtown Dothan? Beginning with the Peanut Mural on the side of Liddon Furniture in the Dothan Civic Center parking lot, these murals have been a loved attraction in Dothan for years. The best way to tour the murals is walking the downtown streets on a beautiful southern day. Maps are available in Porter Hardware, at the Visit Dothan Visitors Center, and on the next page in this Visitors Guide.

Murals of the Wiregrass

Why murals?

In 1992, most of the shops and businesses had moved out of Downtown Dothan in favor of Ross Clark Circle's busy traffic. While business migration is not a bad thing, it left downtown quiet. A small group of citizens created the Wiregrass Festival of Murals Board and began the process of bringing downtown back to its beautiful aesthetic on the historic buildings left vacant.

It was only natural that the first mural would be the Salute to the Peanut Industry, painted on the side of Liddon Furniture, one of the original downtown stores owned by the Liddon family since 1929. The mural features the progression of the peanut industry in the Wiregrass area, beginning with Dr. George Washington Carver at the very first National Peanut Festival, followed by the "old way" of peanut farming to the "new way" with modern farming equipment, to the present-day National Peanut Festival, held every year in November.

The mural was a hit. People were coming back downtown to see the art that seemed to be alive on the side of an old brick building. With that same enthusiasm, the Wiregrass Festival of Murals Board commissioned more murals - hometown legend and Hollywood actor Johnny Mack Brown, Creek Indian Chief Eufaula, early settlers, industries like mules, turpentine, railroad, and cotton, and Tuskegee Airman Sherman Rose.

As of this publication, there are nineteen murals total, including a hidden mural inside the Dothan Opera House. The murals cover an eight-block pathway through Downtown Dothan, and travelers come from all over to see the Mural City of Alabama. More murals are being planned, with the most recent painting a depiction of Wildlife in the Wiregrass wrapping the corner of Bob Woodall Air Care Systems on North Foster Street.

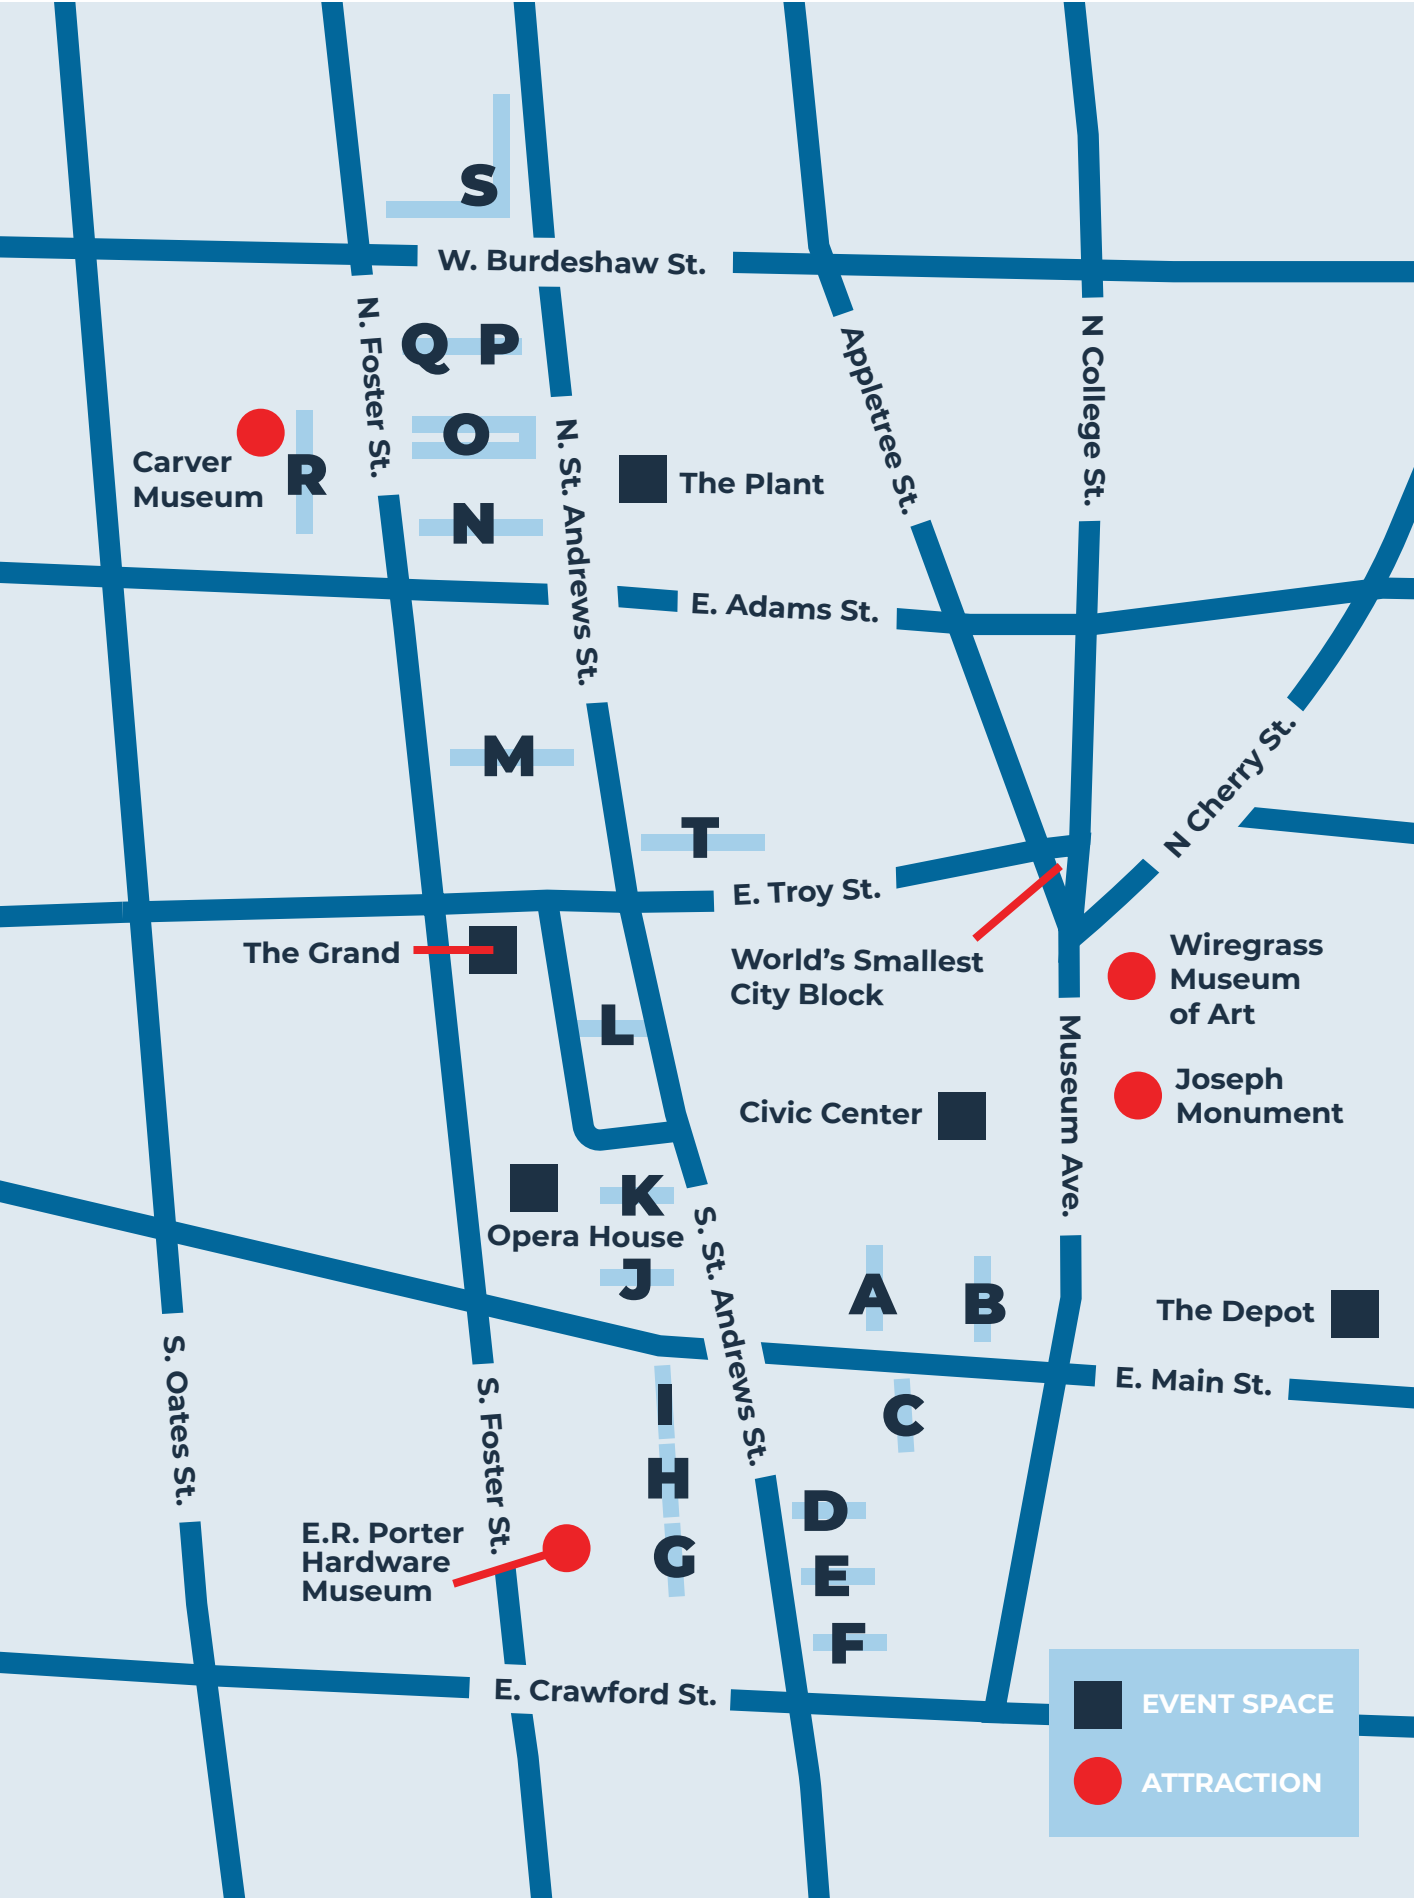

What's the best way to see the murals?

By walking, of course! Take advantage of Dothan's beautiful weather by parking your car on St. Andrews or Foster Street and follow the map on the next page. Choose to see only a few or adventure out to see them all! Each mural is painstakingly detailed by the talented artists who painted them. The murals are the perfect way to learn Dothan's history and to experience Downtown Dothan.

Don't forget to #VisitDothan when you post your mural pics to social media!

Peanuts Around Town

What's the big deal about peanuts in Dothan anyway?

Peanuts haven't always ruled the soil in our part of the world. At one time, it was all about King Cotton. Unfortunately by the 1920s, the boll weevil had taken over most of the cotton fields in the South, and farmers were left with destroyed fields and empty pockets heading into the Great Depression.

Enter Dr. George Washington Carver who, during his time as a professor of agriculture at Tuskegee University, had discovered over 300 uses for the peanut. He found that peanuts were not just tasty, but their oils were conducive to cooking, cosmetics, and pharmaceuticals. He also introduced field rotation to area farmers, showing that fields can be exhausted by continual planting. Luckily for the Wiregrass, the sandy soil on the farm lands was the perfect growing environment for shallow peanut plants.

Peanuts quickly revitalized farming around Dothan, and in present-day, 50% of the world's peanuts are grown within a 100-mile radius of Dothan. If you're eating a jar of peanut butter, chances are that you are consuming peanuts grown by Dothan area farmers. And no, peanuts are not a nut! They are members of the legume family, more related to the pea than the nut.

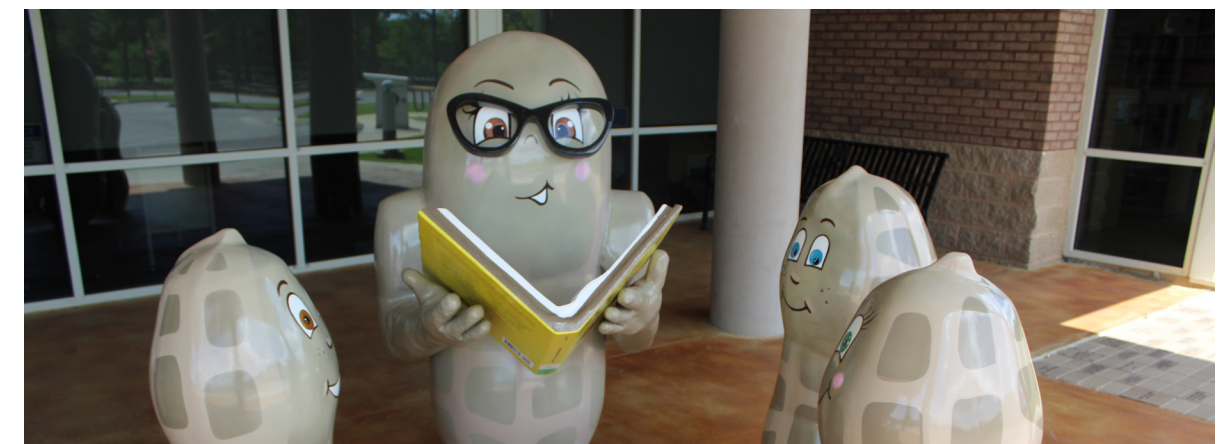

So in the end, we have the boll weevil to thank for our booming agricultural economy in Dothan. So much so that our neighbors to the east in Enterprise raised a statue in honor of the boll weevil in the center of their downtown. But mostly, we have Dr. Carver to thank, which is why you'll find him forever honored on murals and in museums in Dothan.

What about the peanut statues all around town?

What began as a fundraiser for the revitalization of Downtown Dothan has morphed into a city-wide public art project. Businesses purchase fiberglass peanut statues from locally owned Replica Plastics, and design them with significance to their business. You'll find Dothan legends, kangaroos, armadillos, chefs, superheroes, doctors, dogs, and even a giant chicken. As of this publication, there are 61 Peanuts Around Town, and more are being added daily. We dare you to find a more unique city signature than the Dothan Peanuts Around Town.

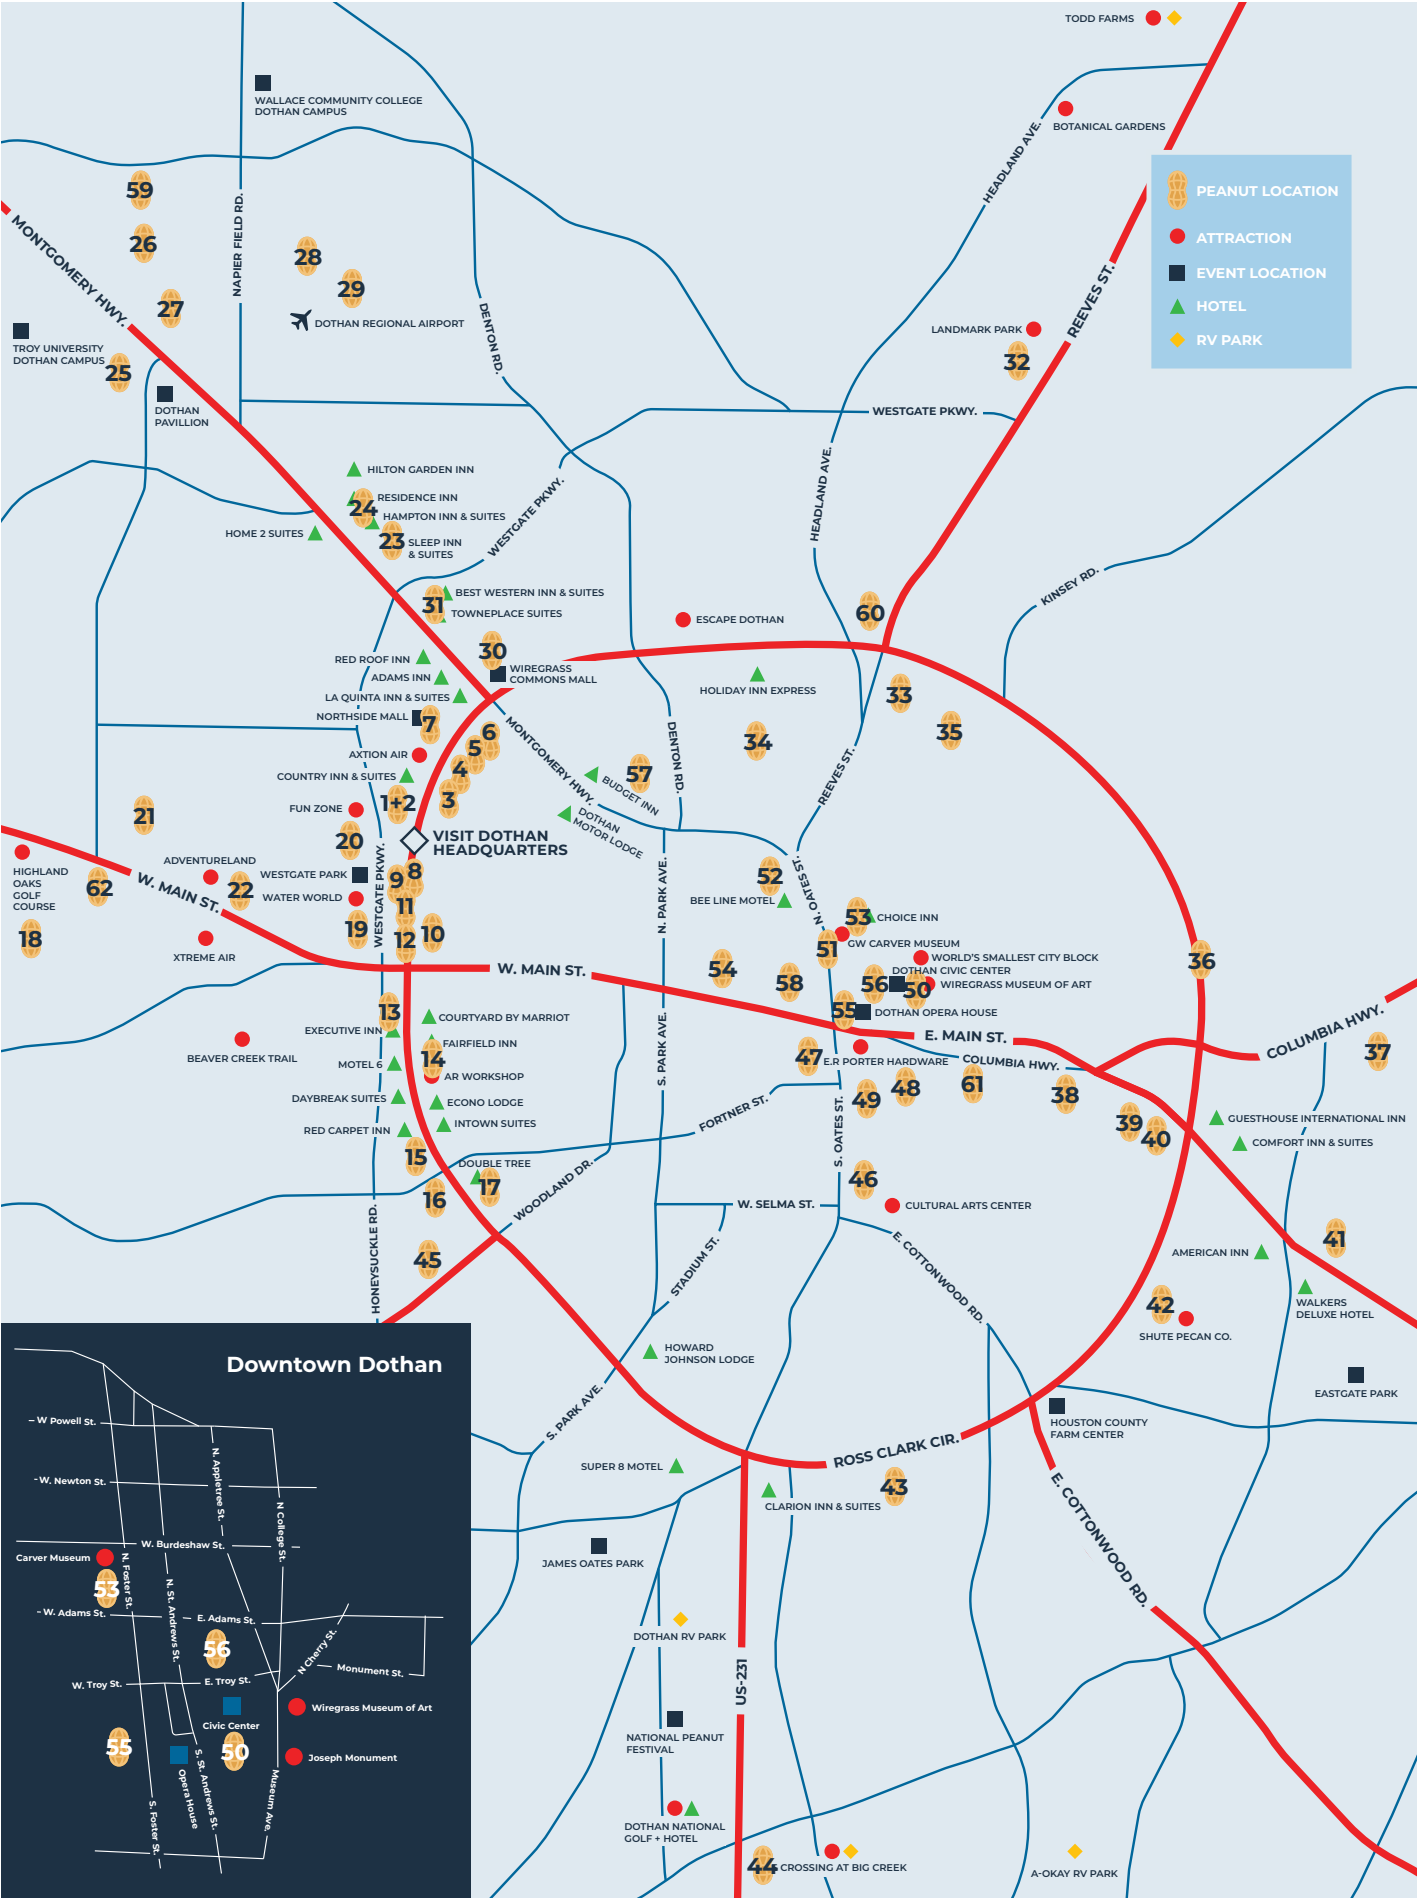

You'll need a vehicle for this scavenger hunt as the peanuts spread (pun intended) all over town. Take the map on the next page and see if you can find them all! This is a great activity to learn your way around Dothan or to get the kids out of the house on a school holiday.

National Peanut Festival

Now that you know why we care so much about peanuts...

It's time you know about the National Peanut Festival. Yes, we have a festival for peanuts. And yes, it's a huge deal. You might hear the locals simply call it, "the fair," but it's so much more than that.

Each fall, the Wiregrass celebrates its agricultural heritage and the end of the harvest season with the National Peanut Festival. Inaugurated in 1938, what was then a three-day event included a pageant, parade, historical play, and a grand ball. The honorary guest speaker was none other than Dr. George Washington Carver. Pausing only for a brief break during World War II, the festival has been held annually ever since.

The festival has grown a bit since 1938; it's now a ten-day event that sees over 200,000 visitors each year. It's own fairgrounds were dedicated in 1999, and includes two midways, an amphitheater, food avenue, and expo buildings. The two midways are split - one for big rides and carnival games for teens and adults, and one for kiddie rides and easier games for the little ones. The expo buildings are full of local arts and crafts, recipe contest and photography winners, and livestock shows. The amphitheatre has hosted big music acts like Blake Shelton, Little Big Town, Steven Curtis Chapman, the Charlie Daniels Band - even Garth Brooks back in 1992 - and presents a new slate of artists each year in varied musical genres. The festival hosts several annual events as well that are crowd pleasers, like the Demolition Derby, cheerleading competition, greased pig and calf scramble, Senior Citizen Day, and Special Citizens' Day.

On the last Saturday morning of the festival, thousands of people line Main Street to watch marching bands, beauty queens on floats, classic cars, and military personnel in the area's largest parade.

What is everyone's favorite part of the festival, though? The food! Former NPF President, Jason Rudd, told us, "The #1 fair food is a corndog from The Corndog Man. #2 is the roasted corn." On the food avenue, local bands and civic clubs set up booths for the week to sell peanuts any way you like them, elephant ears, funnel cakes, fried Oreos and Twinkies, kettle corn, and any carnival food you can imagine. The food is so famous, it was even featured on Food Network's "Carnival Eats."

The National Peanut Festival is worth the visit to Dothan for old-fashioned family fun. You can find information about festival events, ticket pricing, and more at nationalpeanutfestival.com.

I think the beautiful thing about specifically being in the manufacturing business, I mean I'm very limited production, but we're in a fantastic location. You know, you're equal distances from Mobile, Birmingham, Atlanta and Jacksonville. So, you know, it just works out. Take a strategic look and come into the hub over here, especially in the Southeast because the Southeast is on fire.

I love the people here... the tight knit community. My friend Jamie has always called it grassroots. I truly believe that. I stay here because my mama makes me and because I love my town, so I wouldn't live anywhere else. I tried, it didn't work for me.

Dana Lemmer

WMA Executive Director & Curator
I think for me what's really interesting about this community, and I'm sort of bridging creative culture, is that it is kind of grassroots here. There's this DIY element to it where we're not a major metropolitan area. I think that gives us the flexibility to create something different... to experiment a little bit. And that sort of creative expression and freedom is really exciting. We're kind of able to build what we want to build.

Samaria Barnes

DHS Howlers Dance Team Coach
For me, what keeps me here is having the opportunity to create a dance program and to teach kids that maybe could never find or have the tools to get to someone who's danced for renowned artists. I think that's a good way for me to bring that opportunity to them. Because I'm the closest place that you really can get that isn't Atlanta. I'm able to bring it here to my home. Everything I've learned in LA, Atlanta or in Europe, wherever I've traveled... and bring it here so that kids don't have to go far to get that experience.

TEAM PLAYERS

Team Players show up and show out. They possess a determination like none other and strive to be the best. Whether on the softball field or bike trail, you can find them pushing their boundaries to the next level. They want to assist others in achieving goals once thought unattainable. Team Players support others and offer you the confidence you need to compete at your best.

One thing that makes the area interesting is that if we drive 10 miles one way, we're in Georgia, and if we drive 10 miles the other way, we're in Florida. A lot of teams are planning the Dothan trip now as their "playcation" -- they come and play some basketball, but at the same time they take a vacation. They can drive a couple more miles and go to the beach. Dothan is really gaining some interest in that standpoint.

Dothan Gym Rats

Dothan Gym Rats is available for all, from kindergartners to high school juniors and seniors. We have football and baseball players. I'm doing a lot of cross training. Luckily, any of the drills, moves, and techniques that you use in basketball can also be used in other sports. We do a lot of training and a lot of mentoring. I played at Auburn, so that gives us the opportunity to visit the locker room, training room, weight room, and the areas that interest the kids. We give the kids the chance to see what playing on the collegiate level looks like, exposing them to something they don't see every day.

Alabama Fury
Fast-Pitch Softball

As I got involved with coaching, I saw a real need for some higher-level training, to really push the quality of play in this area. As we got more and more competitive, we had to start reaching out further and further away to get into competitive events. We really wanted to make an effort to bring those events here to Dothan. We all know we've got first-class facilities that have been constructed the past few years. We have a hotbed of athletic talent in softball that's just been untapped. Through Alabama Fury fast-pitch, our tournament, and our camp arm of Triple Play Sports, we are focusing on bringing some major events here.

There are 11 sites on the RTJ Golf Trail throughout the state and Highland Oaks is the hidden gem of the trail. We can honestly say to our neighbors and our community that we are a resort destination in your own backyard. We've always strived to be able to say that. We have travelers who come from all over the world, and they fall in love with this place. I can't tell you how many times I've heard someone say, "I came here to play golf back in the 90's and then I said I'm going to retire here." And so with everything we do, whether it's just greeting people at the door or seeing them on their way out, it's a full-service thing.

SE Alabama Mountainbikers

I've been a mountain biker since 1986. I've always had to pack up my bike and my gear, load my truck, and drive somewhere to go ride a trail. Fortunately, about three and a half years ago, the city of Dothan and a couple of other entities built the Forever Wild trails right inside the city limits. I live about a hundred feet from the trailhead, so I got really lucky there. In years past, there were many times I'd load my bike up and drive up to three hours to go bike riding. It was always a big hassle to load all the gear, ride for an hour or so, and then come back. Now it's so convenient - I can pull my bike out of my garage and get my front tires on the dirt in three minutes.

The History of the Games

The Inaugural Alabama State Games competition in 1983 was held in Auburn, Alabama and featured 600 athletes competing in four different sports. In 2012, ASF Foundation's 30th Anniversary State Games showcased more than 6,000 athletes competing in 25 different sports and over 100 sporting events, making it the state's largest annual multi-sport event for youth and adults.

The Alabama State Games are part of a nationwide network of state games with a national organization called the National Congress of State Games (NCSG). The NCSG is a membership organization comprised of 35+ Summer State Games and 10 Winter State Games organizations and is a member of the United States Olympic Committee's Multi Sport Organizational Council. The mission of the NCSG is to support State Games member organizations in the promotion of health, fitness and character building through multi-sport competitions and physical activities. The NCSG was created in 1986, to serve as the official association of the State Games Organizations. The state games programs began in the early 1980s as part of a grass roots effort to get more athletes involved and aware of Olympic sports and to encourage them to possibly pursue participating in the Olympic Games.

Since 1983, The State Games has grown from 600 athletes competing in 4 sports, to more than 5,000 participants in 25 sports with over 100 events!

JT Scott - Age 13

JT won three gold medals in bowling at the Alabama State Games, and finished 5th at the State Games of America. He was born with significant motor and speech development delays, and has overcome many obstacles to be competitive in bowling. Through intensive therapy he has become an honor-roll student and an excellent bowler. He has endured, and had to work extremely hard to come to the accomplishments he has in his life. His heart and desire to succeed, but to also help serve others, makes him a perfect choice for Athlete of the Year.

Carol Dreilinger - Age 55

Carol won gold medals in Taekwondo in the Alabama State Games of America. She has served as a pre-school teacher at the Enterprise YMCA for 20 years, and is Senior Leader at the Enterprise YMCA Taekwondo School. Carol is an outstanding Taekwondo athlete, but is so much more, serving as a mentor and encourager of other athletes. We are happy to honor her as one of the Alabama State Games Athletes of the Year for 2019.
